

Shipping Blocks

Accessories

Shipping Blocks are designed to be easily installed and help protect your window hardware until the window is installed. This product is designed to transfer the impact load directly from the sash to the frame protecting hinges and other critical components from damage

AVAILABLE COLORS

Stainless
Steel

PRODUCT HIGHLIGHTS

- Economical solution for reducing service calls related to shipping and handling damage to the window or hardware
- Protects products from damage during loading, transit and installation
- Designed to fit any window with a 7/16" hinge cavity
- The red tab acts as a visual indicator to remove the block after the window is installed
- Non-handed design
- Easy peel and stick application to any surface
- Can be used on any window profile material
- Material. Rigid PVD (off white), Flexible PVC (red)