

Engineered Solutions. Trusted Results.

OPERATORS

Optima

The smooth, low-wear joint connections and stainless steel protection set Optima dual arm operators apart from the market standard. Developed for manufacturing and engineered for performance, homeowners will love the Optima dual arm operators.

product highlights

- Pre-installed frame gasket saves time in the factory
- Easy plug-and-play with industry standard route sizes and locations
- Operator snaps into place ready for screw mounting and aids in operator alignment
- Same base platform accepts several options of visual design and finish color, reducing SKU's and complexity
- Casement sash brackets available with and without self-locating features
- Premium coastal grade stainless as standard
- Stainless parts are factory friendly for bulk handling, water tight, unique O-ring seal technology holds back 4x more water than others to help maximize DP ratings
- AAMA 901-10 cycle test - commercial grade
- Commercial hardware load test - commercial grade on 36" x 80", 119 lb. window
- Tested to DP70 in both impact and non-impact markets
- Longer visual nesting cranks provide up to 15% greater mechanical advantage
- Fold-down flush and nesting visuals are available as standard
- Composite base has clean line to look good on elevated window applications
- Available in two distinct styles and all popular plated and powder coated finishes
- Longer nesting cranks centered with covers for a balanced appearances

Available Colors

Browns

Bronze Faux Bronze

Greys

Clay

Nickels

Satin Nickel

Tans

Beige

Whites

White