

Engineered Solutions. Trusted Results.

LOCKS

P2000 Passive

This passive locking system utilizes a button on the face that will not allow the mechanism to engage until the door is closed. In addition the latch can be rotated from right to left hand by simply pulling and twisting. Being made from corrosion resistant materials, the mechanism is designed to work in harsh environments. Along with standard configurations, we can also easily customize a solution that best fits your application.

product highlights

- Backset options = 35mm, 45mm & 60mm
- Eurogroove = 16mm & 20mm
- Spindle = 7mm
- Non-handed pull and twist latch bolt reverses easily with lock installed
- Non-handed anti-slam / mishandling feature
- Handle/thumb-turn spacing = 92mm
- Locking features = rhino hook, tongue, rollers & shoot tips
- All locking points, including dead-bolt, are engaged by lifting the handle
- Deadbolt Throw = 1"
- Shoot Tip Throw = 0.790"

Available Colors

Stainless Steel

